

MISSISSIPPI STATE
UNIVERSITY™

Summer Band Director Workshop

Hosted by the Mississippi State University Bands and Department of Music

Pearl High School; Pearl, MS (Jackson area)

June 11 - 13, 2018

Sample Topics include:

- Two Game Changers for Achieving a Mature Band Sound
- What to Play? Thoughts on Programming and Selecting Repertoire
- Dynamic Concerts: Audience and Student-Friendly Ways to Enhance Performances
- SKILLS: They've got to have Skills
- How To Organize a Symphonic Band Camp
- The Non-Negotiable of Superior Rehearsals
- Improving Your Clarinet Section
- Tips for the Sight Reading Room

Featured Clinicians:

Paula Corley

Professor of Clarinet, Texas Lutheran University
Founder of "Clarinet City"

Dr. Scott Watson

Educator and Composer, Allentown, PA

Mr. Alfred Watkins

Director of Bands (retired), Lassiter High School

...and more!

Small participant fee of $25.00 is required and can be paid at the first clinic session on June 11th. CEUs also available for an extra fee.

Pre-register online by June 6th at <http://tinyurl.com/MSUSummerWorkshop>
Questions? Call us at 662-325-2713.